AMERICANS HOLDING THEIR POSITION

TO KILL SOLE OBJECT OF ARMIES

Gen. March Says This is Present Objective of Both Allies and Germans in the Great Battle Now Being Waged in the Soissons-Rheims Salient

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 31.—The sole object of the allies and the Germans in the Soissons-Rheims salient now is to kill as many men as possible, General March, chief of staff, said today at his semi-weekly meeting with newspaper correspondents. Whatever objective either side had at the beginning has been submerged by developments in the recent fighting.

General March had nothing to say regarding the losses of the Americans in the recent fighting. He said, however, that General Pershing had been ordered to cable the casualties as received and these would be given out here at once. He added that there would be no distribution of casualties over a long period hereafter.

The arrival of the 42nd "Rainbow" division and its participation in the fighting east of Fere-en-Tardenois was announced. The 3d regular division was also identified as in action at Serzy and Clerkes where the crack German guard division has been defeated in recent fighting by American troops.

After Violent Fighting They Are Successful Against Enemy at Seringes-et-Nesles—German Attacks Repulsed By French and Latter's Line is Held Intact—Enemy Artillery Active

ATTACKS OF THE ENEMY REPULSED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 31.—The repulse of the enemy counter attacks on the line of the Ourea after severe fighting and improvement of the American position there were reported in General Pershing's communique for yesterday received by the War Department today.

DROPS FROM MOVING PLANE IN PARACHUTE

(By Associated Press)
With the American Army in France Tuesday.—Captain Sarret, a French aviator, has carried out the first experiment on record of falling from a moving airplane in a parachute. He dropped 800 meters with an umbrella twelve yards in diameter and landed safely.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Abbott of Concord have been recent visitors at York Beach.

(By Associated Press)
Paris, July 31.—American troops maintained their position in the region of Seringes-et-Nesles which they carried after violent fighting, according to an official statement from the war office today.

The Germans made four attacks against the new French position east of Outchey Le Chateau. They were repulsed and the French line was held intact. The French and the Germans carried out raids at a number of other points on the sectors east and west of the Marne salient, but there was no change in the general situation at these points.

London, July 31.—The German artillery displayed considerable activity last night in the region of Fere, on the Flanders front, taken yesterday by the Australians and in the Kemmel sector the war office announced today. It was also active on both sides of the Somme. Prisoners were taken in raids and patrol encounters in the Lens region.

POSTMASTER DOWD RESIGNS

Fred C. Tucker Was Today Named Acting Postmaster

Postmaster John H. Dowd, who was appointed March 12, 1916, has resigned and Fred C. Tucker has been appointed acting postmaster and takes full charge of the office tonight. Mr. Tucker entered the postoffice on Nov. 1, 1897, as stamp clerk, and has passed through the various branches in the office to assistant postmaster, and now becomes acting postmaster. Mr. Tucker is 42 years of age, 21 of which have been spent in the postal service.

Mr. Dowd's retirement is owing to ill-health. He has been ill for the past year and with periods of rest in hopes of regaining his health he continued.

Realizing two weeks ago the necessity of retiring, because of his condition, he forwarded his resignation to Washington.

Mr. Tucker has by experience and training fitted himself to continue the duties laid down by Mr. Dowd and should be able to thoroughly administer the affairs of the office. The many friends of Postmaster Dowd will regret that he has been obliged to give up his duties. It has been known that he has been physically unable for some time to do justice to the office. He has had a large circle of friends in Portsmouth who will hope for his rapid improvement and restoration to health.

Amsterdam, July 31.—Field Marshal von Eichhorn, the German commander in Ukraine, and his adjutant, Captain von Dressler, were wounded seriously by a bomb in Kiev on Tuesday, from which they died, says an official announcement received here from the Ukraine capital.

The bomb was thrown from a cab which drove close to their carriage as they were approaching the field marshal's residence. The assassin and cab driver have been arrested.

Both Von Eichhorn and Von Dressler died last night, says a telegram from Kiev. It has been established that the crime originated with the social revolutionists in Moscow.

ALL OF 1918 REGISTRANTS IN BY SEPT. 1

Washington, July 30.—Practically every one of the young men who registered for military service on June 5 because of the fact that they had reached the age of 21 since the first registration and capable of passing the physical examinations will be in uniform and training to assist in dealing the final blow to the Germans by Labor day. This is the authoritative information obtained here following a review of the situation.

The marvelous machine built up in the office of the provost marshal-general—a machine of which the German nation could not conceive and which some Americans were describing as impossible—has reached the degree of efficiency that almost any demand for men will be answered by immediate orders to the district boards.

Counting on 400,000
The number of men available through the last registration has not been exaggerated as yet, but it is the expectation that at least 400,000 men will be ready for duty. From the total registration, which ran greater than 700,000, must be removed the numbers who will not pass the physical examination, along with the numbers who are placed in classes other than the first.

The machinery for the induction of men into service has reached the point where 400,000 men probably will be called in August. It is known at the present time that the entire reserve of the first class in the first draft has gone into camp and is preparing to join the forces across the seas before the new fall. Many of these men have joined the marines and the navy.

Broader Age Limits
"Give us the order for men and we will supply enough to take every civilian passenger off the railroads and plug the cars and the roads with soldiers anxious to get into training," is the answer in which one authority described the situation.

"It is a wonderful sight for American eyes, something which will cheer every American and add to his fighting spirit."

The gold figures in the provost marshal-general's office show how close the nation is to an expansion of the age limits of the draft. Secretary Baker has announced that preparations were being made to extend the age limits, and it has been evident for some time that Congress was about to get legislation through which will add millions more to the available induction machinery.

One question being discussed is that of the future of the American universities and colleges. Leaders in the Senate say that under no consideration will the fact that a boy has entered college relieve him entirely from immediately military training at the universities at the same time that the regular students are being pursued. It is probable the ranks of students will not be depleted.

Bar College Exemption
"We could not grant exemptions of any kind to college students, because if we did every glacker would be rushing to a university," was the statement made by the committee of the Senate.

The belief that it would be three months before Congress would pass a law extending the age limits is passing with the present drive in France. With the information that the draft machinery is being speeded up to the 400,000 a month rate, and the information that the old classes and the class I in the recent draft will be depleted before Labor day, there is a well-founded belief now that, immediately after Congress reconvenes, such legislation will be started on its path to hurried enactment. In fact, some sentiment is developing to push this legislation through before the debate on the revenue bill proceeds.

The question of what will be the ago limits probably will remain a question until the bill is passed. There has been a demand in both houses for a bill to fix the age limits from 18 to 45 and some discussion of the limits of 19 to 40. There has also been discussion of an age limit of 20 to 40 or 45, as some members of both houses contend no man should be put into active military service until he has reached the voting age.

But when the final vote is taken it is believed the desire of Provost Marshal-General Crowder and Secretary Baker will be answered. Gen. Crowder has expressed a desire to drop the limits to 18 years. Secretary Baker says the question is being studied to determine what limits will be best for the country.

JAPANESE STEAMER AGROUND

(By Associated Press)
Pacific Canadian Port, July 30.—The Japanese steamship Canada Maru 5769 tons went ashore on a reef in a dense fog today. She struck with considerable force, but the passengers and crew are still aboard. She had a cargo of silk from Japan valued at $2,000,000.

THREATENS N. E. COAL SUPPLY

Washington, July 30.—The increased demand for coal from overseas, emergency fleet, army and navy, threatens to seriously effect the supply of coal shipped to New England, for coal shipments are now behind their schedule.

Illuminous coal in Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia, three states which are to furnish the New England quota for the year to July 1 shows that 77,000,000 tons of coal mined against 21,600,000 tons that should have been mined. It is possible that part of the production of the Ohio field may have to be diverted to New England.

WHITE MOUNTAIN HOTEL BURNED

Bretton Woods, N. H., July 29.—The Overlook House on Kimball Hill, Whitefield, owned by Levi Bowleg & Son, one of the oldest summer hotels in the White Mountains, accommodating about 75 guests, was burned to the ground today. The fire caught around the chimney, and in an hour the hotel was gone.

The stables, farmhouses and outbuildings were saved by the 25 guests who, after saving their personal effects, formed a bucket brigade. The property was partly insured.

The Mountain View and other hotels offered shelter to the Summer guests who included Boston and New York people.

There is plenty of work at the Red Cross work rooms for all those who would do their bit. The surgical dressings are needed and there is a great demand for workers for hospital garments. After this great drive of the Americans, there is no getting away from the fact that the Red Cross supplies will be badly needed. The knitters are also urged to get busy on the socks, with the ever increasing demand for socks in growing every month.

MRS. WILSON TO CHRISTEN FIRST HOG ISLAND SHIP

Philadelphia, July 30.—Invitations for the first launching at the Hog Island shipyard next Monday are being sent out by the American International Shipbuilding Corporation.

The vessel, a 1000-ton steel cargo carrier, popularly known as the yard as the "Red Jacket," has been made Quistconck by Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, who has also given names to all the other vessels to be built at the yard. Quistconck is the Indian name for Hog Island was known by 237 years ago. It means "place for hogs." The Quistconck is the first of 150 ships to be built at Hog Island. The present programme calls for the launching of fifty ships in the next five months, and a total of 180 by August, next year.

ORDERS STRIKERS TO RETURN TO WORK

(By Associated Press)
Boston, July 30.—The State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration has been sitting for the past two days on the Brockton shoe strike, recommending tonight that all prejudices be thrown over and that the strikers return to work pending a settlement of their question. The manufacturers accepted the recommendation.

A meeting of the strikers council was held but they refused to take the responsibility and have called a mass meeting for tomorrow. The strikers through John Quinn, the President of the Union expressed dissatisfaction with the decision, but said that if President Wilson or anybody in authority told them to go to work they would do so.

AMERICA'S WAR NOW $2,000,000 AN HOUR

Washington, July 30.—America's war bill has reached $1,935,577,000. With expenditures during the first 27 days of July of $1,100,000,000 and estimated expenditures for the whole month of $1,485,000,000, this nation is now paying out nearly $2,000,000 a day or more than $2,000,000 an hour.

June, this far, has been the highest water mark of the war, $1,512,000,000 having been expended during that month.

In April, 1917, when we entered the war, the month's expenditures amounted to only $430,000,000. Yesterday's compilation shows a steady increase to a point where they are now over 500 per cent. of the first month's.

WIFE AND DAUGHTER IN YACHT CABIN

(By Associated Press)
Portland, Me., July 30.—Mrs. Morse (Mrs. McKee) and her 19-year-old daughter Jeanne of New Bedford died at the government hospital at Fort Preble this afternoon as the result of their impalement in a cabin of a capsized yacht. Mr. McKee was on the deck of his thirty-five foot yacht when it went down on its beam end but he managed to cling to the rigging. The family were bound from New Bedford to Eastport and were trying to make Portland out of the storm.

SONG RECITAL FOR WAR FUNDS

There was a good sized audience at the Portsmouth theatre on Tuesday evening for the song recital of Mr. U. S. Kerr assisted by Mr. Frank H. Luker on the piano. It was under the auspices of the First Methodist church for the benefit of the war fund for war work among enlisted men.

The recital was very fine, Mr. Kerr being a singer of national reputation and his program was very pleasing. It was fairly long and in addition Mr. Kerr sang nationally responded to encourage. He has an excellent voice and sings with a feeling and ease that is refreshing. He has a wonderful memory, only on one occasion referring to the sheet music in the entire program, and when it is considered that his program included with encores nearly twenty numbers, it is all the more remarkable.

Mr. Frank H. Luker at the piano was very fine and his special number and encores were very finely rendered. The program—Part I.

AMERICAN TROOPS ADVANCE BEYOND SERGY

(By Associated Press)
American troops fighting north of the Ourey on the Salsouza-Illemy salient have enlarged their front after their brilliant victory of Monday at Sergy where they cut to pieces the picked guards of the Prussians and Bavarian divisions and they now hold the village and points beyond.

Notwithstanding the continuous and bitter opposition of the enemy with guns, machine guns and picked troops, the soldiers from the middlewestern and eastern states, have driven their line north of Sergy for a distance of two miles and Tuesday night rested on the slope of Nesles, where they stood at last account, the Americans, form the apex of the advance line of the allies.

While the bitter fighting was in progress between the Ourey and Rhemes, the French troops also moved their forces ahead for a goodly gain on both sides of the Fore-en-Tard-nouse and Sergy lines.

In the Nesles forest the Germans are holding strong positions from which they are shelling and menacing allied line.

Prussian and Bavarian picked guards, were in the thick of the fighting on Tuesday, but they were outmaneuvered and outflanked by the Americans and French and suffered heavy casualties.

Southeast of Rhemes the Germans delivered a violent counter-attack at St. Euphrasie, but their efforts to capture the town were futile although they pushed their line slightly forward on the west side.

South west of Ypres the Australians are keeping up their attacks on the German line and they have taken the town of Meris and captured 15 prisoners and trench mortars and machine guns. The Germans are suffering the British lines here to a violent bombardment.

THIEVES BUSY AT RYE BEACH

Thieves have been busy at Rye Beach and in the past week several summer homes have been broken into. On Monday night the Charles E. Fitz residence was broken into, but the thief was frightened away when the maid heard him and gave the alarm.

The break was made shortly after nine o'clock and the procedure has been about the same as in the break about this city. In about every case the thief has spotted the family going out for the evening and after a time he would ring the bell and if nobody answered he would find his way into the house through a window or some other means and ransack the house.

It is quite evident the work of the same gang that have worked this city in this section, but in no case has there been any clue that would enable the authorities to get action.

There is a dead certainty that some day this man is going to be the receiver of a bullet from a revolver or a rifle. This seems to be the only thing left to Rye where there is no police protection.

The Home Service Department of the Red Cross which is handled principally through the Organized Charities, is constantly increasing the volume of business. The fact that the naval prison has so many young men whose parents have lost track of them, possibly through their being assumed to let them know that they are prisoners, causes the Red Cross to be constantly looking up and acting as the go between parents and sons and in many cases between wives and children and their husbands and fathers.

SOLDIERS SISTERS MAY SERVE IN FRANCE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 30.—Because the American Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other war activities in Europe, are unable to get enough women workers, the War Department have modified their rule, and here after sisters of soldiers may receive passports to do certain kinds of work in France.

BOSTON WANTS TO BOOST MILK PRICES AGAIN

Boston, July 30.—Milk producers and distributors have petitioned the city agent here to allow them to advance the price of milk two cents for August. The producers want to advance 1-2 cents and the distributors 1-2 cents a quart. This would make milk 16 1-2 cents a quart.

DOVER

Dover, July 31.—The first contingent of registrants subject to the special service regulations of the draft to leave from this district departed at 8:43 o'clock Tuesday morning, for Syracuse, N. Y. It comprised the original men who volunteered for this special training in the contingent appears an exceptional case. Arthur George Hunter of this city is not working on any new proposition with the local service regulations, he has been already seen in the European conflict. Mr. Hunter, for the war spent at the outbreak of the great conflict and went to Canada where he enlisted in a Canadian regiment and was engaged in the conflict with a contingent of the Canadian forces which saw real red hot fighting. After some time on active duty, however, his health failed him and he was discharged. Ever since he has been anxious to again get after the home front special on limited service regulations made this possible and he was among the first to volunteer for this branch. His health has improved so that he has hopes of being able to get into the game actively.

Mr. Hunter was appointed captain of the contingent which left Monday morning and Wallace Billings of Rochester first lieutenant.

After Mr. Whittemore had given the draftees their instructions, Mr. Hunter stepped forward and as an expression of appreciation of the many courtesies extended to them by the chairman of the board asked him to accept a box of cigars. Mr. Whittemore was deeply moved and his expressions of appreciation, extended that fact.

The six volunteers, who departed Tuesday morning were as follows: Wallace Billings, Rochester; Carroll M. Nash, Dover; Arthur G. Hunter, Dover; John T. Doyle, Dover; Hugh R. Miller, Rochester; Ralph J. Chappin, Farmington.

James McKee, foreman of the construction department of the New York and Telephone and Telegraph company in this district appears as the latest victim of the desire to "get at the Huns" he having enlisted in the quartermasters corps has received a commission as first lieutenant and will leave this city this evening for Camp Johnson at Jacksonville, Florida to enter the service immediately. Mr. McKee has been service having been discharged as a sergeant after doing his bit with Company A of the Seventeenth United States Infantry, in the Spanish-American war. Mr. McKee is leaving a family which comprises his wife and four children. His service flag will be the first unfurled in Hamilton street.

The Fort Sumner contingent leaving on August 6th as announced Tuesday morning is: William Byron, Sumner; Roy Bradstreet, Dover; Leon C. Greter, Rochester; Wilfred Under, Dover; Alternates, Fred Miller, Dover; Harold H. Shinn, Dover. The second call to be received by this district for the enlistment of special service men subject to limited military service was telephoned to Chairman Whittenburg of the local draft board Tuesday afternoon from the office of Adjutant General Howard at Concord, asking that 10 men be enlisted in this city on Aug. 5, next Monday for Syracuse, N. Y.

The annual meeting and field day of the "Hassatqua Rangers" will be held Aug. 21, 1918 at 11:00 a.m. in the Grange Hall, Roxbury. Cocher on the line of the Dover and Portsmouth highway. The meeting will be called to order in Dover at 2:30 a.m. and will immediately adjourn to again assemble in Eliot upon the arrival of the electric car from Dover. A business meeting of the organization will then be held. Dinner will be served in the hall at 12:30 o'clock by John C. Higgins. The post (social) program will be as follows: Opening address by the president, Mrs. Anna Bary of Ellsworth, whose subject will be "The Home Spun Handkerchief of Our Forefathers." Address by Hon. Aaron J. Cole of Kittery, a paper on local history by Joseph H. Dixon of

DEMAND A MILLION TONS OF STEEL FOR AUG.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 30.—Steel requirements for the month of August will be one million tons, an increase of 250,000 tons over the previous month, this increase is called for so that the reserve of 1,300,000 tons will be available in November.

Fuel Commissioners Bradbury, Roberts and Clifford of this city Monday received an order from Federal Fuel Administrator Floyd of Manchester, N. H., restricting the use of light fuel oil by the use of fuel. This order is identical with the one that has been issued by the various federal fuel administrators all over the United States. By putting this order into effect it means a saving of from 20 to 25 tons of coal a week in Strafford.

Hurd was in the family lot in Pine Hill cemetery.

The funeral of John Noel, the victim of the accident at the Shattuck shipyard last week, was held at St. Charles church, Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The church was well filled with friends and relatives, several being present from Littleton and Westbrook. Mr. Requiem, high mass, was celebrated by Rev. Father De Trossanton. The prayers were Samuel S. Loring, Arthur Bishop, William Chappin and Paul Merchant, all relatives of the deceased. Burial was in St. Charles cemetery.

The funeral of Miss Alice Foster was held at the Ricker Memorial church at Pine Hill cemetery, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, attended by many relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Arthur J. Shell, pastor of the Washington street Baptist church. Burial was in the family lot at Pine Hill cemetery.

James McEaden, of this city, who a year ago, enlisted in the navy, is enjoying a few days' leave of absence which he is spending with friends and relatives in this city. He came here from Newport News, Virginia, where he has been stationed for the past few weeks. He is enjoying good health and likes the service very much.

The list of rooms available for war workers at the office of the Chamber of Commerce is fast dwindling and Secretary Baker is anxious to have persons who have rooms list them with his office. This is now the recognized headquarters for such things and up to this time he has had a fairly good list to offer the applicants.

MRS. PAGE OPENS HER SUMMER HOME FOR RED CROSS BENEFIT

Wife of Ambassador to Give Musical at York Harbor.

Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, wife of the United States ambassador to Italy, will throw open her summer home at York Harbor on Saturday, Aug. 11, for a musical to be given for the benefit of the wounded soldiers in the American expeditionary force in Europe and the Italian relief fund. Mrs. Page has had the great good fortune to secure as artists Miss May Mable and Miss Rebecca Clarke, noted English professionalists, one a violinist, the other pianist. Miss Clarke will play, another star performer, will be at the piano, and Miss Lela Ormond will sing. All of the artists give their services without price and are as enthusiastic over the affair and the objects of it as the hostess herself. A large gathering is looked for and there is no doubt, weather permitting, that hundreds of motor parties will attend from all points along the coast from Portsmouth to Portland. Mrs. Page only recently came over from Italy and she is profoundly interested in the welfare of the Italian troops whose valor and endurance she praises to the utmost. Now that American fighting units have actually joined the forces of General Diaz she is enthusiastic and anxious to do all she can to provide for the comfort and care of our boys.

PERSECUTION OF JEWS IN POLAND

Stockholm, July 31.—A great sensation has been caused in Warsaw by the sudden disappearance of 19 members of the Jewish trade unions, says the Jewish press bureau here. The men had been working with the Zionist and Socialist organizations. Their disappearance, it is added, is apparently due to the mysterious arrests connected with the persecution of Jews now going on throughout Poland, Germany and Austria.

That this is apparent from the fact that carpenters are patching up the holes in the structure overhead.

That it would be interesting to the public if some one would explain just how much is saved in not using the street lights.

DOVER MEN APPEAL FINES

Five Dover men, Nicholas Kouloungis, Joseph Garvey, Maurice Beaudouin, Bernard Cates and Malcolm Pelky appealed the decision of Judge H. A. Shute in Exeter police court Tuesday, fining each $50 and costs of $17.12, with a 60 days suspended jail sentence for transporting liquor from Massachusetts into a dry state. Judge Shute held that a person found guilty of transporting liquor from a license state is committing the offense of procuring the penalty for which under the Lewis law is the same as selling.

Three punished bail for their appearance at the October term of the Superior court in Portsmouth. The five were held up late Saturday evening by Rockingham county officials at the Mill bridge at Hampton Beach, their automobile containing a large supply of liquor.

They were also held for the Federal officers for violating the Webb-Kenyon law.

POLICE COURT

Joseph W. Webber of Boston, an employee of the Boston Elevated Railroad, was heard in Municipal Court today on a charge of violating the street traffic rules. Webber came through Chestnut street, a one way thoroughfare, and was placed under arrest when he did not stop on signal of a traffic officer. Webber explained to the court that he was flung into Chestnut street from State street by a man at the corner who was directing machines owing to repairs being made in the State street having. He said he did not observe the one way sign. He testified that he did not stop on Chestnut street when the officer gave him the signal because he did not dare to try and back his auto through the street. He said as soon as he got turned around he came back and explained the circumstances to the officer. This was on Monday while he was on his way to a funeral at Portland. The court continued the case for sentence.

SECOND BATTLE OF MARNE APPROACHING A CRISIS

Decision in Opinion of the U. S. Officials Can Not Long Be Delayed—America Zeal May Lead Them too Far

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, July 30.—The second battle of the Marne is entering on a new phase. Both the official communication of the French and German press reflect the increasing fury of the battle indicating that a new crisis is approaching and that the decision can not long be delayed.

It is not clear whether the enemy have reached a line where they will make a defense. The general trend of opinion among officials is that this present battle ground between the Alsace and Rhine is not a position that would lend itself to check the rapid advance of the allies.

The intensity of the struggle and the vigor in which picked German troops are hurled into local counter-attacks, show the importance of the German high command attaches to this section. The chief action appears to center on the American spear head, which is the direct center of the attack.

Officials here gathering their impressions from the press reports from Paris and London and from the American front, that the Germans have failed to stop the advance although materially slowing down. The latest available accounts indicate that the Americans are north of Peronne-Tardenois and have regained all of their gains at Arras.

There is some expression that the zeal of the American troops may lead too far into Germany line and that they might in this way become punished.

ESKIMOS ARE HAPPY PEOPLE

Have No Fear of Death, Are Childlike in Nature, Humorous and Inquisitive.

In Herschel Island, where the sun shines continuously for eight weeks in summer, the Eskimos had a sun dance, not always clothed in the garments of propriety. They had an idea that when the sun came back its movements were directed by an invisible power, but they had no tangible conception of a God. They had no belief in a future life, either of reward or punishment. Today they are religious, truthful, kind to their children and to the aged. They are ambitious to learn; they are practical, extremely industrious, sanitary in their habits; well clothed and well housed. Insanity is unknown, but tuberculosis is quite common.

They whale in summer and trap in winter. They are clever in trading, good workers on land, water and ice, and take excellent care of their household effects. Tools, if broken, are neatly repaired. When at Herschel Island or Port McPherson they eat the white man's food with great relish. In summer they eat their fish and blubber raw and in winter frozen.

The Eskimos have no fear of death; if told that death is approaching they will respond with a complacent smile. They are a very happy people. Their natures are childlike and they do not continue in the same frame of mind for two minutes at a time. They are good-natured and humorous and very inquisitive. Their emotions are sudden and short-lived—unusually happy one moment and almost crying the next.

SWIM TEN FEET A SECOND

Interesting Facts Developed in Scientific Study of Habits of Fish.

The speed at which fish can swim is summarized by the Scientific American from recent studies as follows:

"A Belgian authority, G. Denti, while studying fishways, concluded that salmon could swim at a speed of 3.16 meters a second for at least 14 meters. A Canadian, G. P. Napier, from investigations in the Fraser river, expressed the opinion that the limiting velocity of a steady stream up which a sockeye salmon could swim a very short distance was between six and seven miles an hour. Finally, H. von Bayer of the United States bureau of fisheries declared that the velocity of the current in fishways should not exceed ten feet a second. These various figures, arrived at independently, are substantially in agreement. From his own studies on fishways in Massachusetts, Emerson Stringham found that a common species of alewife could swim for at least a few feet through water flowing about ten feet a second, about the limit for fishways."

Get Out of the Rut.
Have you ever stopped to consider how much like a machine you are becoming?

True, your daily duties are performed in a way which seems to suit the boss, but you jog on in the same old way, day in and day out, with movements purely mechanical.

How long do you figure that you can continue to make good by this course? Ever think of changing life methods used by you for the past several years, and which lifted you out of the ranks of the ordinary at the time you adopted them, but which are passé at the present time?

Oh, you are becoming too prosaic. There is not enough variety in your life.

Seek outdoor exercise; you need it, and you should infuse with you of up-to-date ideas; you should visit other establishments in your line of work and see how things are being done there.

You are in a rut. Get out before it is too late.

Every-Day Courage.
The courage of the rush forward, a moment of high purpose born of a sudden impulse, that is one sort. Then there is the stick-to-it courage, and that is of great value. Still another is the simple resolution to do the obvious right and best thing at the moment, without demur or timid delay, and that is the most important of all.

The quiet courage of every day, that does its best hour by hour, and accepts as part of the day's work the losses and penalties that the steadfast doing right must often bring—this is the highest courage of all. It wins no medals, it is never lauded as heroism, even its possessors seldom think of it as bravery or fortitude, yet it is the quality which keeps the moral world from defeat, and makes the common life of the common people strong and safe.

Japanese Village.
Few people realize that in the United States there is a village composed entirely of Japanese, who live their lives just as they did before leaving the Flowery Kingdom. This quaint spot of interest is north of the long pier, a mile from Santa Monica. Here is the home of a number of Japanese fishermen. Their native dress, food and the daily routine of their lives are carried out as though the little village were on the far shore of Nippon. On Sundays are to be seen the native sports of the Japanese. The girls serve tea and bonbons to visitors, while the young men display their prowess at wrestling, Judo-Jitsu and other oriental pastimes.

His Ancestors.
It was always boasting about his ancestors, and one day employed a genealogist to hunt them up. In due time the genealogist of pedigree returned, and was cordially received by his patron.

"So you have succeeded in tracing back my ancestors? What is your fee?"

"Two hundred dollars."

"Isn't that high?" objected the patron. "What's it for?"

"Principally," responded the genealogist, "for keeping quiet about them."

GUNMAKING GREAT SCIENCE

Manufacturer Must Not Exceed Variation of Two One-Thousandths of an Inch in Six-Foot Bore.

Gunmaking is a ticklish business—not dangerous, but just ticklish, writes Edward Hungerford in Collier's Weekly. It's mighty exact. A gun manufacturer must not exceed a variation of two one-thousandths of an inch in a six-foot bore. Not every man who walks into a shop, his overalls under his arm, and announces himself as an expert mechanic, can build guns to as delicate measurements as that.

And a complicated business, too. A single disappearing gun, of a standard type adopted by our army, has, with its disappearing carriage but exclusive of its sights and accessories, almost eight thousand parts. A three-inch gun battery requires 8,874 tools, accessories and supplies which are simply part of its standard outfit. And yet our government stands in great need of thousands of these guns—and their accessories.

An army officer made these things clear to a chamber of commerce man of Rochester. And the chamber of commerce called a conference of several dozen of the leading manufacturers of Rochester. To them the man in khaki made the problem clear. He said that the program for heavy guns for the army until July, 1919, would run to a cost of $2,000,000,000—perhaps even more. He translated these figures into those of size. He said that within that time there would be needed at least 65,000,000 tons of new parts for these guns in addition to 45,000,000 tons of replacement parts.

Let me translate these figures still further for you. There are 65,000 railroad locomotives in this country. Let us assume their average weight to be 200 tons each—it is a very fair estimate. That means that the railroad locomotives together weigh some 13,000,000 tons—or just one-fifth the tonnage required for the new parts alone of our heavy ordnance for the next 18 months of the war. We have embarked upon no piling enterprise!

Soldiers Get Reading Habit.
The growth of the reading habit among the soldiers has brought to light an interesting contradiction to the generally accepted theory that among a group of individuals the leveling process is a leveling downward.

The men in the camps who are readers stimulate by their example the interest of those who are not. "Have you read this story?" asks Private X of Private Y. "Now," replies Private Y; "I never read a book through in my life." "Well, you ought to read this one. It's a better'n any movie show I ever saw. It's a bear!" "Thus does Private Y get an incentive to taste the joys of literature. There is a tendency toward a leveling upward."

The valuable service of the Librarian is further developed by lectures, university extension courses, and the general education plan. Men not only will keep pace with their former civilian activities, but many of them will emerge from the army and navy better equipped for the battle of life.—Raymond B. Fosdick in Scribner's Magazine.

Musically Obedient.
Antonio was overwakened by his surroundings when the first draft sent him to the cantonment. And he continued to live in awe, particularly of all officers, during the early days of his training. While standing guard one night, he was in such a flutter when the corporal of the guard approached, that he made his challenge in a low voice which the non-com could not hear.

"You'll have to speak up, my man," said the corporal, "or you'll get into trouble. I'll take your word for it that you challenged me, but when the officer of the day comes around, you'll have to sing it out or you'll get a trip to the guardhouse. Remember, sing it out and sing it out loud."

Antonio vowed that he would make no mistake that would get him in the guardhouse, and when the officer of the day appeared a half hour later, he was greeted with—

"Trals-in, who come dere?"—Every-body's Magazine.

The German Spirit.
"Any restitution that Germany offers to the allies will be offered, you may be sure, in the spirit of Griggs."

The speaker was Edward Hungerford the advertising expert.

"Griggs and Miggs," he went on, "were kidnapped by bandits and shut up in a cave."

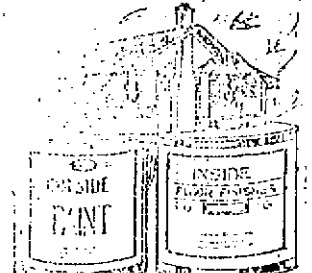

"They'll take every cent we've got on us," moaned Miggs. "Every blessed cent."

"They will, eh?" said Griggs, thoughtfully.

"They sure will."

"Griggs pulled a ten-spot from his roll."

"Here, Miggs," he said, "here is that ten dollar I've been owing you for so long."

ESCAPES FROM STATE HOSPITAL AT CONCORD

Concord, July 31.—Throwing pepper into the eyes of an attendant so as to blind him, Charles Frost, an inmate of the State Hospital made a getaway at about 8.20 last night. As soon as the attendant could clear his eyes enough to see, he made after Frost, who ran to the swamp below Hollis park and when the attendant closed upon him Frost seized a club and threatened him and the attendant being unarmed gave up the chase and ran to summon the police. A detail was sent to apprehend the man and after about an hour's search Frost was discovered by Motorman Charles Bean and Police Officer Irving Robinson, skulking in the bushes of the swamp. Frost surrendered when cornered and was returned to the institution. He is a man about 35 years of age.

Miss Lulu A. Canty, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and wore a gown of pale pink satin and georgette crepe of like shade. Her hair was of pink crepe. Her bouquet was of pink rosettes.

The best man was Arthur P. O'Leary, brother of the groom.

Following the impressive rites a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 96 Woodbury avenue, the couple receiving under an arch of evergreen. A wedding repast of chicken and lobster salad, cold ham, rolls, olives, assorted cake, ice cream, fruit and coffee was served. The dining room adornings were in pink and green.
